Andis Wines of Amador County Hires Besmir 'Lorenzo' Muslija as National Sales Manager

Plymouth, CA – September 22nd, 2016 – A new position has been created at Andis Wines of Amador County. Jenae Plasse, COO, has appointed Besmir Lorenzo Muslija as National Sales Manager. Lorenzo has been Andis' Brand Ambassador for almost 1 year, growing and expanding the brand into a national presence. Originally from Florence, Italy, it was his travels around the wine region of Tuscany that caused him to fall in love with cooking and wine. Lorenzo opened his own restaurant in 2011 which was soon rated one of the top ten restaurants in the region. In 2013, he and the family moved to California where Lorenzo enrolled in the Wine Business Management program at Sonoma State University, and then joined the Andis team in 2015. "Every day is a challenge, finding new outlets for Andis Wines and sharing Amador's history with folks all over the country."
