

Membership Roster Privacy and Communication Policy

To protect the privacy of our members and maintain the integrity of official communications, the following policy is in effect:

- 1. Confidentiality of Membership Roster

ACWHD membership roster is considered confidential and will not be distributed, shared, or sold to any individual, organization, or third party without express written consent from the Board of Directors.

- 2. Official Communication Channel

All communication to and from members regarding Association matters must be conducted through the ACWHD Association office. This ensures consistent messaging, accurate information, and respectful boundaries for all members.

- 3. No Direct Solicitation

Members, partners, and outside organizations are not permitted to use ACWHD membership information for unsolicited outreach or promotional purposes.

Requests for communication or announcements to the membership must be submitted to the Association office for review and approval.
